

Biography

Nicky Aimcharoen

Head of Business Management, Man GPM US

Nicky Aimcharoen is Head of Business Management, dedicated to Man Global Private Markets US ('Man GPM US'). She is responsible for all strategic and operational oversight of US residential real estate and credit strategies. She drives activity across business portfolio & investment risk, ESG, and branding for Man GPM globally. She is also a member of the Man US Charitable Foundation.

Prior to joining Man Group, Nicky worked in business development at Pretium, driving marketing and sales efforts across real estate, residential credit, and corporate and structured credit. She has also worked at JP Morgan in the TMT Large Corporate Sales group.

Nicky graduated with a double major in Mathematics and Financial Economics from the University of Rochester.